

A gorgeous thank you note from Jo's parents, Terry and Helen

To Lynette,

Wow, Wow and Wow are the first words that comes to mind when we think about the events that took place on 3rd November 2018 in down town Chambers Flat and Logan Village.

Our daughter Joanne (22) was diagnosed with Squamous cell carcinoma in her face in September 2016 after many surgeries and setbacks, we thought we had beat it. In March 2018 the Cancer had returned and the ugly truth was revealed it was terminal.

With this in mind Joanne and Josh(who hang around through it all) decided to bring their wedding forward. The number 3 was important to them so 3rd of November was the date. This is where your organization shone brighter than any star in the whole universe.

From the very first phone conversation we had with you Lynette, your sincere love for what you do flowed through the phone line. It all happened so perfectly nothing could possibly go wrong.

When we met Jenny your Logan co-ordinator she reassured us that you guys were here to help and man did you help. Please pass our thanks to your team of professionals that donated their time or goods to make Joanne and Josh day so wonderful that we struggle to find words to thank them.

Lynette – Celebrant – The ceremony was so up lifting, and heart felt both Joanne and Josh just glowed.

Jenny – Co-ordinated all aspects of Suppliers, collected flowers for bridal table and assisted on the day of the wedding.

Kat – Photographer – didn't she have to put up with a lot. 60+ crazy family members when she arrived at Joanne's house - Two dogs, Joanne loves a little more or less than Josh – a horse ride – helicopter – snakes – and a crazy mother of the bride, both Joanne and Josh have seen a sneak peek at some of the photos and are in awe of the finished product. Every photo certainly reflects the love both Joanne and Josh have for each other.

Wade and Team - Videographer – Perfect -Perfect- Perfect for a team that could have been anywhere in the world on the day , and they chose our Joanne and Josh's wedding

Dianna – Cake – delicious.....

Melanie – Lolly Cart – this was a hit with the young ones and old folks alike.

Angie- Stylist – what an amazing job the way she took, and extravagant wedding ceremony setting and turned it in to some so magical

Karen – Helper – I met Karen a few weeks before the wedding and knew she had a relaxed soul that would fit perfectly into the role of helper. The other girls I had organised to help with Karen said she shone like a Rose in a perfect garden.

Eliza – Welcome sign – Added style to one of my favourite photos.

I am sending the most heartfelt THANK YOU, the memories you have helped build for us will last Today Tomorrow and Forever.

You and your team of volunteers should be congratulated on the expertise and professionalism you bring to make something very special in a bad situation. We will always hold a special place in our hearts for you all.

Kind regards

Terry and Helen Gladigau
